Commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples

The General Assembly, recalling that 14 December 2010 marks the fiftieth anniversary of the adoption of Assembly resolution 1514 (XV), containing the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, and recognizing the crucial role of the Declaration in the process of decolonization and expansion of the United Nations membership, which has contributed to the universality of the Organization, decides to hold a commemorative meeting, on 14 December 2010, on the occasion of that event, in accordance with the established format for commemorative meetings of the General Assembly.
